

CUDE Scholarship Application

This scholarship was created to provide financial assistance to credit union staff and/or volunteers whose CU is a member of the Nebraska Credit Union League and wish to attend one of the final two National Credit Union Foundation's Credit Union Development Educator Trainings in 2019. Preference will be given to applicants have shown engagement with the credit union movement.

The Foundation will be offering one $1,500 scholarship to supplement the cost of the training, the total cost typically being around $3,100. Application deadline: May 1, 2019; Scholarships will be awarded by May 15, 2019.

A program of the National Credit Union Foundation, the DE program brings renewed relevance to the philosophy of "People Helping People." This unique and transformative training provides critical lessons in cooperative principles, credit union philosophy, and development issues, while incorporating challenges credit unions face today.

During the week-long DE Training, participants are involved in group exercises, field trips, encouraged to ask questions of visiting speakers, and are required to complete team projects proposing solutions for credit unions to help alleviate or eliminate challenging situations in any given area.

Since 1982, more than 1,700 credit union advocates from over 35 countries have graduated from DE Training to become Credit Union Development Educators (CUDEs).

A highly sought-after training experience, the CUDE program has a waiting list and typically fills up within a day or two of registration opening. The CUFN CUDE scholarship winner will have a spot reserved for the training dates of the winner's choice.
