

Ready. Set. Go!

The new FedNow Service enabling participating credit unions to transfer funds instantly, safely, and efficiently - any day, at any time – on behalf of their members is now live.

To help credit unions better understand the benefits of instant payments system and the FedNow Service, the League is hosting a webinar with special guest Lance Wagner, AVP and Stacy Springer, Senior Relationship Manager of the Federal Reserve to offer information and answer questions.

Some of the FedNow Service topics covered will include:

- Participation Types: How would your credit union like to participate in the FedNow Service?
- Connectivity: How will your credit union connect to the FedNow Service?
- Settlement: Where will your credit union settle transactions?
- Real Time Solutions: Who will your credit union work with to offer real time solutions to your members?
- Answers to Your Questions: One of the most valuable features of the webinar will be the ability of participants to ask questions.

Don't get left behind, please join us on Wednesday, September 19, 2023, at 11:00 a.m. CST to learn how your credit union can use this powerful new tool to attract and retain members and remain competitive in today's changing digital landscape.

A separate calendar invite, with the Zoom meeting link will be sent to credit unions.

Brought to you by:

