Nebraska Credit Union League Advocacy Scholarship

The Nebraska Credit Union League will be awarding a scholarship to a small (below $50 million in assets) Nebraska credit union to send one representative to the 2020 CUNA Government Affairs Conference in Washington D.C.

The League's scholarship will provide one (1) complimentary conference registration, hotel accommodation, and a roundtrip flight to the winning credit union. To apply for the scholarship, the credit union must complete the Advocate "Scholarship Application" including a credit union member story of how the credit union greatly impacted the life of a member. Member stories can be provided in a narrative by credit union staff, a letter (handwritten or electronic) from a member, or a video testimonial by the member.

The scholarship will be awarded by the League's Executive Committee based upon the member story that the Committee deems most impactful. The deadline for applications to be accepted is January 10, 2020.

Applying credit unions should submit their application and member story to Brandon Luetkenhaus by e-mail to brandon@nebrcul.org Questions about this scholarship can be directed to Brandon by e-mail or by phone at 402-333-9331 x. 202.
